JOIN THE CROSS

If you cannot tote a gun, join the Cross. You can help to beat the Hun—join the Cross. If you don't believe in force, if you cannot ride a horse, there is still another course—join the Cross. If you want to help a bit, join the Cross. Tote a little merck kit; join the Cross. You can bring a lot of joys and a thousand pains alloys to the Yankee soldier boys—join the Cross. Till the heaven blessed sod—but join the Cross. Economize and trust in God—and join the Cross. Be you old or be you young, not matter what your birth or tongue, yet you can be one among the Great Red Cross.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY
Subscription, $1.00 per year.

LAND AVAILABLE

The Sentinel has been advised by officials of the P. E. Railway that they will be glad to make arrangements for the use of any unoccupied land which the company owns in Tropico for gardening purposes. This offer includes the unused strips of land bordering the tracks which will be leased to any applicants who will apply and sign the necessary papers.

A similar statement was made by Mr. Taylor of the Industrial Department of the Southern Pacific Railway who said officials would cheerfully lease unoccupied lands along their right of way for a nominal sum. When asked what sum, he indicated $5 per mile. It is possible that portions of this could be irrigated from fire hydrants at a minimum rate, and that arrangements could be made for plowing.

Mr. Norton Wells, of the Forest Lawn Memorial Park told a representative of the Sentinel he would be glad to aid the city in any way possible in a food production campaign, and would be willing to spare for a short time, occasionally, labor and teams for plowing, provided the service did not exceed one day, as the Company is using its teams constantly on the improvement work now going on in the cemetery. Mr. Wells is fully alive to the gravity of the food situation and stated ot the writer: "Do not let any one persuade you that government officials are exaggerating the situation or making misleading statements. We must not overlook the fact that 25,000,000 men have been withdrawn from the fields of Europe and also that many of the animals formerly used in farm work have been taken, leaving all the agricultural work to be performed by women as hand labor; and two years of war have absorbed the surplus food stocks of the United States. To meet the needs of Europe and the United States is going to require extraordinary efforts on our part. Mr. Clarke, president of the Salt Lake Railway told me a few days ago that but 25 cars of Oregon potatoes had been shipped to Southern California up to this time as against 2000 last year at this season. This is not due to a short crop but to the diversion of the crop elsewhere."

Mr. Wells also stated that he has had a large garden planted for the use and benefit of the Company employes.

FREE GARDENING INSTRUCTION

The Sentinel has been advised by Congressman C. H. Randall that a supply of Farmer's Bulletin 818 of the Dept. of Agriculture entitled: "The Small Vegetable Garden" has been forwarded to this office for free distribution. They will be given to applicants as long as they last.

FREE TOMATO PLANTS

At the Council Meeting Tuesday evening Trustee Veselich announced that a consignment of 500 to 1000 tomato plants had been alloted to Tropico from stocks which are being distributed by the Los Angeles Home Garden Association. He stated they would be left at the City Hall with the City Clerk for free distribution to all applicants until exhausted.

Miss Ida Myers represented Tropico last week at a meeting of the Pasadena Chapter of the D. A. R. which was held at the home of Mrs. Hall in Oak Knoll. Senator Carr made an address on bills passed by the State Legislature in which women are interested. Mrs. Myron Hunt described the work of the Navy League which has a chapter in Pasadena of which Mrs. Hunt is president.

BETTER FOODS AT BETTER PRICES

The price of foodstuffs is based on (a) supply and demand, and (b) on the original cost PLUS THE PROFITS AND EXPENSES of every MIDDLEMAN who comes between the producer and the retailer.

This store believes in BETTER FOOD AT BETTER PRICES.

It has combined its buying power with eighty-eight other groceries for YOUR benefit.

The needs of 88 groceries concentrated for economy represents a POWERFUL buying force.

It means cutting out the profits and expenses of the MIDDLEMEN—the buying agent and the jobber.

It means going direct to the SOURCE of supply and getting the best in the market—for the best, without middlemen's profits, can be sold for the same price as that formerly charged for cheaper goods.

It means establishing quality and maintaining it by buying the SAME GOODS year after year at the same source of supply.

It means branding goods of such known high qualities, in a manner easy for the public to recognize—as "La-Gro-Co" and "Highway" Brands.

KITCHEN SHOWER

Mrs. C. D. Bennett and Miss Blanche Shea were hostesses at a party and kitchen shower for Miss Katherine Hobbs at the Shea home on Brand Boulevard last Tuesday evening. The guest list included Misses Esther Jones, Gladys Hamilton, Essie Hamilton, Pauline Hamilton, Olive Moffat, Alice Gray Beach, Dorinda Haviland, Lois Duncan, Harriett Myers, Mary Logan, Amy Miller, Georgie Duffet, Dorothy Hobbs, Katherine Hobbs, and Mesdames Ethel Baker Klamm, John Hobbs, J. L. Ripley, H. Goodrich, Clyde Carmack, John A. Logan, Andrew Stephenson, Glenn Craig, Louis Coole, Stella Spear and Janie Rae McKelvey.

INJUSTICE TO TROPICO BAND

The Sentinel has been advised that a rumor was set afloat at the Carnival last Saturday evening which misled strangers and some of the newer residents of Tropico. It was to the effect that the excellent band concert was given by the Glendale Band, the leader of whom had generously brought his best players to Tropico for the purpose of contributing to the Carnival. This was entirely erroneous. The concert was given by the TROPICO BAND which had been practicing for that event for a long time, and it was led by its regular leader, Mr. Lively. It is certainly not fair to have Tropico musicians robbed of the credit that is due them for a most excellent performance.

G. A. R. NEWS

Comrades Taylor, Norton and Henry of N. P. Banks Post went to Long Beach Tuesday for the opening of the G. A. R. Encampment. It is whispered that Comrade Norton, who has been chaplain for four years of the Southern California Veteran's Association, is scheduled for the post of Department Chaplain. The Woman's Relief Corps also sent a big party which included Mrs. Atkinson, president; Mrs. Spafford, senior vice president; Mrs. Howdyshell, treasurer; Mesdames Susie Peck, Hapgood and Burlingham, all past presidents. The delegates were Mesdames Crawford, Watson and Spafford, the alternates being Mesdames Danner, Sanford, Ogier and Bruck.

THE CARNIVAL

It was a beautiful pageant which was staged on Tropico's Municipal Playground last Saturday by pupils of Cerritos and Acacia schools, assisted by the Girls' Glee Club of Union High and the Boy Scouts of Tropico, Glendale and Eagle Rock. The person to whom most credit was due was Miss Ruth Mitchell, teacher of music in the Tropico schools, who planned the various numbers and drilled all the children for their parts in the charming spectacle. When one considers that this was done without trespassing on the regular work of the school, the full measure of Miss Mitchell's task can be appreciated.

Under a cloudless sky, with just enough wind to keep flags waving and cause "a sweet confusion" in the airy skirts and draperies of girl attendants, the Queen, beautiful young Theta Furey, came to her throne and reviewed the events of the afternoon. In that setting of palms and flowers, with maids and attendants grouped around her, she made a picture which the court photographer, Mr. Robert Morton, was glad to record. A big audience of parents and friends had gathered to watch the ceremonials and they testified their appreciation in unmistakable manifestations of approval. First came girls from Miss Brown's room who bore a long rope of fern and grouped themselves around the throne. Then came herald's from Miss Morgan's room, carrying golden trumpets, and dainty flower girls strewed a path of rose petals.

Presently came Ida Wilbur, Maid of Honor and very stately, followed by the Queen, also walking alone but attended by two train bearers, little Catherine Cook and Wilber Reynolds. Following were more maids, Jessie Dutton and Dorothy Carmack, and attendants; and resplendent in a beautiful page's costume, came Wilbur Houghton, bearing a floral crown on a cushion. After kneeling before the queen he tendered the crown to the Maid of Honor who placed it upon the head of Her Royal Majesty, and the entertainment in her honor began.

Little kindergarten tots from Miss Atwood's room gave a pretty heel-and-toe maypole dance. Then, in more lively measure, girls from Miss Crane's room gave another maypole dance. Next was the pretty Sun Dance by a group of graceful little girls from the rooms of Misses Cornwell and Hamilton of the Acacia school. The dance by the girls from Miss Lofthouse's room, dressed in the semblance of spring flowers, was another very pretty number. Girls from Miss Mintner's room in pink ballet costumes with garlands of ferns and roses, executed a very pretty spring dance.

About this time the floral floats, all of them designed and executed by the little boys and girls, made their appearance and were warmly applauded. They were all so good the judges had a hard time in the selection of prize winners but finally gave out first to Ralph Bradley on a wonderfully clever gun-boat design, its hull a solid mass of scarlet geraniums. The second went to Lloyd and Lawrence Knapp on a rose float which beautifully pictured a sailing vessel. A third boy's prize was bestowed on the Row Boat entered by Kenneth Martin and Don Danner. First girls' prize was captured by Geraldine Meagher and Ruth Goto with a clever hospital tent and Red Cross nurse on a bed of white roses, the second premium going to Katherine Care on a beautiful red and white rose entry.

Another picturesque feature was the ambulance corps with the ambulance made by George Barlett in the van. Julia Stillman bore the banner, Florence Melrose personated Uncle Sam and little Dorothy Dutton Miss Columbia followed by a train of Red Cross nurses.

There was a flag drill by girls from the rooms of Professor Kennedy and Mrs. Curtiss, Helen Hartwig personating Columbia and Norma Wallace representing California in a yellow costume decked with poppies.

The flag drill by boy scouts of Eagle Rock, Glendale and Tropico was a beautiful number and was directed by Mr. McKnit, Scout Master of Eagle Rock. Later there was an emergency and first aid drill conducted by Scout Master Ludden.

From Glendale High came the Girls' Glee Club in Japanese costumes and led by Mrs. Gibson. Their two numbers made a pleasing variety.

Last came the Baby Parade on the tennis court which was such a crush that it was hard to get a view of the entries. The first prize went to the Edwards baby, the youngest contestant. All the rest had honorable mention, a blue ribbon and a Tropico button, and everybody was satisfied with the judge's decision.

The chief athletic event was an indoor ball game between the teams of the Cerritos school and Intermediate of Glendale, the home team winning the honors.

The decorated booths where games were offered for entertainment, and where refreshments and confetti were sold, attracted much attention and furnished another hard problem for judges who finally awarded first prize and the cut glass vase donated by Hamburgers to the Thursday Afternoon Club booth over which Mrs. Ella Richardson, chairman of civics, presided.

Before five o'clock arrived appetizing odors advertised a delicious supper in preparation, patrons began to line up, and for ninety minutes or more cooks and servers had their hands full distributing good things to eat.

The evening entertainment included the concert by Tropico's Band, the program of which was given last week. Members played with spirit and enthusiasm and every number was encored. Too much praise cannot be given their efficient leader, Mr. Lively, and their manager, Mr. Robert Danner, who has brought the band from a twelve instrument unit to a twenty-piece organization.

The drill by Knights and Ladies of Security was fully up to schedule and was a very pretty bit of fancy team work.

About eight o'clock the fancy dress ball opened and the floor was occupied until after midnight. Not as many fancy costumes were in evidence as had been expected but there were enough to make competition. Miss Lucille Barnes won first prize for the ladies, the second going to Agnes Heide. Harold Kennedy captured first gentlemen's prize and Charles Boring the second premium.

The grounds were thronged all the evening, the attendance being variously estimated at 1500 to 2000. Guests watched the dancers or amused themselves at the various booths at one of which the Yeomen did a lively business in "weinies." Councilman Peters dispensed confetti, Mrs. Richardson and others sold candy and ice cream, Messrs Shafer and Shipman ran a "Baby Rack," and Mr. Van Wie a Country Store in a character make-up.

Miss Eula Horton has been enjoying a two weeks' vacation and entertaining a friend from Chicago, Miss Claribel Twyman.

AT FOREST LAWN

Constructive work is proceeding steadily at Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Foundations are in for The Little Church of the Flowers, receiving vaults and crematory, and brick work was begun this week. Excavations for the mauseleum and colombarium foundations are being made by a steam shovel and auto trucks are moving about 1000 yards of dirt a day. The foundation work will be started immediately after the grading work is done.

A new arch has been constructed at the junction of San Fernando Boulevard and Glendale avenue and the wall is now being completed which will connect the main arch at the cemetery entrance with the newly constructed piece of masonry. The whole front of the cemetery will be connected with this rubble stonework within a fortnight. On completion, the ground enclosed will be ornamented by a landscape architect from Paris, so says Mr. Norton C. Wells, the business manager of the company.

OVERLAND TOURISTS

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Black of Park avenue left Tuesday for an overland trip by automobile to Creston, Iowa, where they will visit Mr. Blacks' father and mother who are 85 and 83 years of age respectively. They will follow the Santa Fe Trail and will spend some time in Kansas looking after business matters in which Mr. Black is interested. They will be attended a part of the way by Mr. and Mrs. Allington of Crenshaw Boulevard, Los Angeles, who are enroute for Webster City, Iowa. The Blacks have equipped their car with every convenience for camping and expect to be quite independent of poor hotels enroute. They plan to return to Tropico next fall.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. J. Stewart of Tenth street entertained about a dozen ladies of Tropico and Glendale Tuesday afternoon with a tea party from 2 to 5.

Mrs. C. C. Chandler who has been suffering from eye trouble, reports improvement and she hopes soon to be entirely well.

Master Charles E. Philips of San Fernando Boulevard, entertained four young friends at dinner Tuesday evening in celebration of his eighth birthday.

Mr. Henry Felz, for six years a resident of Tropico, left Wednesday for Cincinnati, Ohio, his old home. He will visit his father and mother and relatives there.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Thursday, May 24th at the church for a 12 o'clock luncheon to be followed by a business meeting. At 2:30 the program will open, the subject being "A Glimpse of Medical Missionaries." The meeting will be led by Mrs. Frank Ashton. The hostesses will be Misses Hazard and Crowell.

While trying to "doctor" intruding ants with distillate in the absence of his wife and son, and using a candle to aid his sight, Mr. C. H. Scheu of Central avenue was severely burned on both hands. The candle fell into the pail of distillate which exploded onto the floor. In spite of his injuries Mr. Scheu carried the pail to the yard, then returning extinguished the blaze. Dr. Conrad dressed the burns which are quite deep.

The Grand Temple of Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will be held at Redding, in northern California, all next week. Mr. W. J. Hibbert goes as the delegate of Twin City Lodge and the Pythian Sisters will be represented by Miss Blanche Shea of Tropico and Mrs. B. F. Cook of Glendale. They will reach San Francisco on the return trip Saturday the 26th and will spend the afternoon and evening sight seeing, the party including several hundred delegates.

Several Tropico Masons attended the installation Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple in Glendale of officers of the Commandery of Knights Templar. The ceremonies were preceded by a supper which was served at six o'clock. Messrs. C. C. Chandler and C. C. Rittenhouse were there.

The parents of Miss Eula Horton and her brother, who have been spending the winter with their son and daughter and occupying the Boyce residence on Brand Boulevard, left last week for their home near Macomb, Illinois. They went by the northern route and planned to make stops in Spokane and Seattle. They have spent nearly every winter for fifteen years in Southern California and their children have vainly tried to persuade them to transfer their permanent residence to this state. But Mr. Horton is a successful farmer and only 73 years of age, which he declares is altogether too young to quit and retire. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Boyce are expected to return to their Tropico home the latter part of the month and Miss Horton will remain with them.

A VISIT TO THIS ESTABLISHMENT

is a trip worth your while. You will find the finest display of meats that ever teased a hungry man's appetite into a dining room. And the most sanitary equipment ever installed in a modern meat market. Journey hither.

Misses Harriett Bagg and Ruth Ryan spent the week end at Roberts Camp near Sierra Madre with a party of friends from Los Angeles.

Mrs. Staley, sister of Mrs. Dan Johnson of Paloma avenue who has been visiting in Tropico for several months, returned last week to her home in Eugene, Oregon.

Officers of the Chamber of Commerce gathered last Thursday evening at the City Hall but as the number of members who appeared was insufficient to constitute a quorum, no business was transacted.

Mr. Dan Campbell is so much better that he hopes to be well enough to be moved from the home of his brother in Los Angeles to the Campbell home in North Glendale next Saturday.

The Lucky Thirteen enjoyed a week end house party at Hermosa Beach from Friday night to Sunday evening as guests of one of the club members, Miss McPherson, who has a cottage there.

More honors were brought to Union High when Frank Balthis, its representative catured the gold medal at the Inter-Urban Oratorical Contest at Pasadena, and he is to represent the school in the Championship Contest which will be held in Los Angeles June 1st.

Miss Leta Horlocker will be the speaker this week at the meeting of the Thursday Afternoon Club. Her theme will be "Interior Decoration." She is an authority on such matters and is chairman of Art in the District Federation. Mrs. Seeley Moe is program chairman and the hostesses are: Mesdames Thomas Gaither, K. E. Hollingsworth, George H. Moore and Perry Griswold.

Miss Carol Duncan came home from Chino for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, from Chicago, who visited Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler recently, have returned to the windy city.

Round Table Girls met last Thursday at the home of Gladys Hamilton where a comforter was tied and presented to Miss Katherine Hobbs, a bride elect.

Last Friday the local chapter of the P. E. O. was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. F. Tholen on North Brand Boulevard. Mrs. Wattles read an interesting paper on the Customs of Women of the Balkans and a nice victrola program was provided by Mrs. Tholen.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Richards of Chicago were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chandler from whom they had been separted for fifteen years. In the days of their Chicago friendship they were all members of a Methodist church. To their surprise and pleasure they discovered that all are now Christian Scientists. They have spent the winter in Southern California and have been making their headquarters in Hollywood.

BOWERFIND - HOLLINGSWORTH NUPTIALS

Monday at high noon Miss Amy Bowerfind of Tropico and Radcliff Hollingsworth of Glendale were united in marriage at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Johnson, at 512 South Brand Boulevard. Mr. and Mrs. Hollingsworth left for a brief wedding trip, returning Tuesday evening. If rumor is not at fault they will reside in this city.

P. T. A. PRESIDENCY

The Sentinel has been charged with doing an injustice last week to the lady who nominated Mrs. H. W. Fleming for the P. T. A. Presidency by stating that it was done without Mrs. Fleming's knowledge, which was what the editor understood to be the case. As a matter of fact this was not perfectly accurate. According to Mrs. Fleming, she and a group of ladies were discussing the lack of a candidate resident in Tropico previous to the meeting and Mrs. Fleming remarked: "Rather than not have a single Tropico candidate I'd run myself."

"Would you?" one of the ladies queried.

"Sure," Mrs. Fleming retorted, lightly, and thought no more of the matter until accosted on the street after the meeting with the information: "You got eight votes."

"Eight votes for what," Mrs. Fleming asked wonderingly.

"For the presidency of the P. T. A."

"How could I when I'm not a member?"

"But you are. Somebody paid your fee and you were voted in."

In strict justice to Mrs. Bruck, who made the nomination, this explanation is given. She treasured Mrs. Fleming's words seriously, while the nominee did not, and that is all there is to the matter. Mrs. Flemnig also wished to go on record as not having been opposed to Mrs. Richardson personally, for she considers her very efficient, able and devoted to the association. Her only drawback in the eyes of Mrs. Fleming was the fact that she does not reside in Tropico.

CARD OF THANKS

The Tropico Playground Committee wishes to thank all persons who contributed in any way to the success of the Carnival last Saturday and to assure them that their aid was greatly appreciated.

MRS. E. V. BACON, Carnival Chairman.

MRS. CHAUNCEY LAKE, Secretary.

Mr. Rittenhouse and Dr. Pearl Rittenhouse, his wife, have moved from Walnut to Blanche avenue in order to secure land enough for a good garden.

AMUSEMENTS DENOUNCED

All benches were filled at the Friday night meeting in Gospel Tent on Brand Boulevard and chairs had to be imported for the excess attendance which gathered to her what Preacher Clarke had to say about cards and dancing, his advertised themes. Rumors had been circulating to the effect that his challenge to any one who would debate with him, had been accepted, but no defender of popular amusements mounted the rostrum.

His address was not an argument but a mixture of arraignment and appeal, and any one attempting to debate with him would have had a hard time. Irony, satire, ridicule, invective, pathos, rebuke. denunciation and parable were employed in rapid succession like beads on a string of assertion but with really telling psychological effect which moved even those who had come to scoff.

Cards, he characterized as "the great gambling game" and proceeded to show the misery following in the train of that vice. His assumption was that were cards banished from the world there would be no gambling.

Dancing he epitomized as "Music, Motion and Hugging." He depicted the demoralizing effect of the close physical contact of the common modern dance and its encouragement of sensuality. He declared that the investigations of social workers have shown that 85 per cent of the women of the underworld attribute their downfall to the dance hall; he rebuked parents for permitting their children to learn and practice the art.

Last Sunday evening his topic was: "Heading for the Bowwows." No meetings were held Monday but services were resumed Tuesday and will continue throughout the week including and afternoon and evening meeting next Sunday.

HELPS TO GARDENERS

In view of the wide spread interest in gardening and other productive activities at the present time, it may be of service to some to know what the library has of value along these lines.

"The A B C of Bee Culture."

"California Poultry Culture," Mrs. Burbridge. "Productive Swine Husbandry," by Day

The following agricultural bulletins from the Berkeley experimental station: "Commercial Fertilizers," bulletins Nos. 240, 245, 259 and 272.

"Use of lime and gypsum on California soils," circular No. 116.

"Lettuce growing in California," Circular No. 160. "Potatoes in California," circular No. 161. "Tomatoes in California," bulletin No. 239. "Tomatoes in California," circular No. 147. "Irrigation practice in growing small fruits in California," circular No. 154. "Practical and inexpensive poultry appliances," circular No. 142.

"Pacific Coast breeders' and fanciers review," 3 numbers, published in Glendale. "Feeding and management of hogs," circular No. 151.

TROPICO ARTISTS IN REQUEST

Last Sunday Mrs. Peal Keller motored to San Diego accompanied by her brother, Mr. McKittrick, Merna and Merle Kahler and Dorothy Dutton. She and her pupils were to appear Monday in a benefit entertainment for "The Ladies of the Great Circle" at the Little Theatre in that city at which Mr. McKittrick would sing. Mrs. Ida McKittrick, mother of Mrs. Keller, who has been visiting in San Diego, will return with the party.

CLEANED UP

Health Officer Mabry is well pleased with the results of the clean-up campaign of the 5th and 7th. Acacia avenue, the street on which the doctor lives and on which his influence is presumably most potent, "has been cleaned from end to end," he says. Other parts of town also give eloquent testimony to the industry and public spirit of the inhabitants thereof. Tropico is tolerably efficient when she once "gets to moving."

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Tuesday night meeting of the Board of Trustees was a short session. In the absence of City Clerk Coleman the minutes were taken by Treasurer Brown.

Communications

Two communications were read, one from the State Council for Defense was referred to the Chamber of Commerce; the other from the Moise-Klinkner Co., submitted figures for danger signs to be placed at railroad crossings as per the recommendations of the Railroad Commission. Ordered placed on file.

Taxicab License

The application of James Sulzer Jones for a license to operate a taxicab was granted.

Acacia Street Sign

Health Officer Mabry reported the "danger sign" at Acacia and Brand; "the best we have had had yet. If we could have them all over town it would be pretty nice."

Columbus Avenue

Trustee Henry reported work done by Street Superintendent Ripley for the temporary improvement of Columbus avenue. Later in the session the advisability of instituting condemnation proceedings or of improving a portion of the avenue was discussed. Mr. Todd made a protest on behalf of interested property holders and the Board concluded to take no further action unless petitioned to do so by residents on the street.

Mr. Alexander of Blanche avenue through Mr. Peters, requested permission to remove from a parkway a damaged acasia tree and substitute a palm. The request was granted.

Marshal Gould reported the "danger" signs ordered by the Board had been made and placed with the exception of the turning blocks for which he lacked the metal discs. Later Trustee Veselich stated he had ordered six discs at a cost of $2.10 each and bearing the imprint "Tropico."

Animal Pound

At the request of Marshal Gould the City Attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance providing for a City Pound to confine animals and poultry.

Street Repair

On motion of Trustee Seal, City Engineer wattles was requested to prepare an estimate of the cost of repairing Cypress and Tropico avenues throughout their entire length, and such other streets as in his opinion need attention.

Bond Eelection

Relative to the postponement for thirty days of the call for an election to vote bonds to acquire a water plant, City Attorney Shaw stated the postponement was made on the advice of attorneys who make a business of handling municipal bonds and who declared it would be difficult to market the bonds unless the thirty days were allowed.

Bill Questioned

Some discussion arose over the bill of the Water Company for $66 for moving three fire hydrants, which was considered excessive. It was referred to the City Clerk for investigation.

Demands

The following demands were approved and ordered paid: Tropico Sentinel for publication of Ordinance and Resolution $10.00 and $3.48 for printing dodgers $4.25; Pac, Tel. & Tel. extension $1.35; Tropico Feed and Fuel $17.80; Joe McFeeters for street labor, 7½ days $16.25.

The Board then adjourned.

DEATH OF MRS WEIBLITZ

Mrs. William Wieblitz, who has been lying at the point of death at the Relax Home and Hospital for more than a week, passed away Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She leaves a year-old baby and a sorrowing husband. At this writing the time of funeral services has not been determined.

DEATH OF GEORGE J. STADLER

The accident to George Stadler, of which an account was given in the last issue of the Sentinel, proved fatal and last Saturday morning, May 12th, he breathed his last.

An inquest was held at the parlors of Scovern Letton & Frey Monday morning in which the coroner signed a certificate of "death by fracture of the skull accidentally struck by the trolley catcher." The jury did not censure any one and attributed death entirely to an accident for which no one could be held responsible.

The young man was born in Illinois and was but thirty years of age when death cut short his career. He is survived by a brother, H. J. Stadler and by his mother who resides in the Atwater Tract, and who has been prostrated since the death of her son. Funeral services were held Tuesday at three o'clock at the Stadler home and interment was made in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

The Stadler family has the deep sympathy of the community in their tragic bereavement.

DEATH OF THOMAS LORRIMER

Brother of Mrs. Amy Isabella Peabody

Last Friday afternoon a telegram addressed to the First National Bank of Tropico advised the officials of the sudden death in Mexico of Thomas Lorrimer, only brother of Mrs. Amy Isabella Peabody of this city. About the same time a similar telegram was delivered to Dr. Irving C. Mills of Glendale, asking him to break the news to Mrs. Peabody, which he did, Mrs. Le Roy Bosserman accompanying him on the sad errand. No particulars were given save that Mr. Lorrimer had died quite suddenly at six o'clock that morning. Mrs. Peabody left the same afternoon for Douglas, Arizona, to meet the body of her brother which was to be interred in that city until the close of the war would permit of its removal to the family vault in Surrey, England. Before quitting the city she prepared a brief statement of her brother's life which embodied the following:

"He was born in Surrey, England, thirty-nine years ago and was the only remaining son of Sir Thomas Lorrimer and Lady Catherine Lorrimer. In 1896 he entered the Royal Navy and saw service in every war in which Great Britian has since been engaged. An injury to his eyesight compelled his resignation from the navy. He was well and favorably known to officers of the United States Navy and was at Manilla during the Spanish-American war. For the past two years he has been occupied with mining interests in Mexico to which he had but just returned after visiting his sister here. He was well known in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Washington, Toronto and in many cities of the world outside of England and will be missed and mourned by many people."

Mrs. Peabody is a recent comer in Tropico but she has made a large circle of acquaintances through her warm interest in matters of civic concern. She is heartbroken over her terrible loss.

GREAT WAR DRAMA

Arrangements are under way with the Pacific Electric officials to supply special service from the principal towns of Southern California during the brief run of Clune's spectacular revival at the Auditorium Theatre in Los Angeles, beginning May 21, of the great military drama, "Shenandoah." "Shenandoah" is not a motion picture but a stage production on a stupendous and spectacular scale which the great stage of the Auditorium permits and is possible west of Chicago only in that playhouse.

The cast selected for this most wonderful of all military plays, which ran for 250 consecutive performances when originally produced by Charles Frohman, is one of distinguished names.

The Worm Turned.

The customer had waited fifteen minutes for the fish he had ordered. He was very quiet as he sat there, but internally there was a seething. At the end of the sixteenth minute the waiter, who had been in total eclipse for fifteen minutes and a half, bustled up.

"That fish will be here, sir, in five minutes."

Five minutes elapsed three times. Then the waiter bustled up again.

"The fish will be here, sir, in a minute."

The customer turned to him.

"Tell me," he said quietly, but with a certain emphasis, "what bait are you using?"—New York Times.

London's Muffin Man.

The muffin man had no monopoly of the street bell when William IV. was king, as John Ashton records in a sketch of that time. The dustman also rang a bell and yelled, and the postman's bell was a most popular institution. There were no pillar boxes in those days, and the sound of the bell brought people who lived far from a postoffice to their doors to give the postman their letters to post. In "Pickwick," however, we have evidence that even then the muffin man was chief among hand bell ringers, for when the town crier of Eatanswill proclaimed silence on the hustings by "a concerto on the bell" a gentleman in the crowd called "Muffins!"—London Mail.

Tosti's "Goodby."

Paolo Tosti had the Italian gift for melody and he wrote many good songs, but he is known the world over by a single one, "Goodby." That song has been sung for years wherever a concert hall exists. Its melodic wail has an intensity which sets the nerves tingling, and for that reason it has been seized upon by singers great and small. In fact, "Goodby" is one of the two popular songs of the early eighties which have survived, the other being Sullivan's noble "Lost Chord."—Brooklyn Eagle.

DEFENDS TORRENS LAW

The Sentinel has received the following letter in defense of the Torrens Law, which it is very glad to publish:

Editor, Interurban Sentinel,
Tropico, Calif.:—

In an article on the Torrens Law published in your paper on April 5th, you quote extensively from an address on the Torrens Law by Walter R. Taylor of Michigan. I wish to say that while Mr. Taylor's address may possibly have some point in the Eastern States, I fail to see where is is applicable to the Torrens Law in this State. The California Land Title Act is on quite a different basis than similar acts in other States, having been prepared outside of our Legislature with a view of embodying the best features of the Torrens Act, it was outside the meddling influence of paid agents, who have in every State striven, and often most successfully, defeated the passage of a successfully operating Torrens Law. The Torrens Act of this State gives as good security for titles as it is possible to give. The opponents of the system know this, or they would have contested the law long ago.

The article you quote certainly gives a false impression to anybody reading it regarding the Torrens Law in this State. I believe, in justice to your readers, you should correct this false impression for many of them have voted for this law, are in favor of it and hope to avail themselves of its use. Your truly,

CHAS. P. MEE.

AMERICA READY IN WAR FINANCE

Credit of France and England, In Spite of Severe Strain, Is Still on Solid Basis.

The United States, through the experience of the warring European powers, has acquired a tremendous fund of preparedness information. Americans who have served with the European armies and navies have made available to us their valuable experience in the world war.

In the less spectacular, although hardly less important, phase of the struggle, war financing, this country has also had skilled observers. It has not been necessary for them to visit the scene of the struggle. In a way the scene of the struggle has come to them. Much of the planning of the financial side of the war has taken place within shadow of Trinity Church in lower Broadway, New York.

America World Financial Leader.

By reason of America's newly acquired leadership in the world's finances, we know how Europe has financed herself to meet the strain of her tremendous struggle. Money is the sinews of war. We know how Europe has kept her sinews pliant and efficient.

America, therefore, is in a much better position than we were at the beginning of any of the five wars which brought us face to face with weighty economic, financial and social problems.

The banks and trust companies of this country, through which Europe has conducted much of her war financing, are at one with the nation's industries, in affording the government the resources with which to meet the eventualities of war. For example, the Guaranty Trust Company of New York has recently reduced to book form its fund of information on war financing. In a pamphlet entitled "War Loans and the United States," there is some rather striking information. The United States now holds approximately thirty per cent of the world's supply, it points out. This is an increase of thirty-six per cent over the amount held by this country in 1914, and upon us is thrown the obligation of employing it intelligently. We are discharging this obligation by using it as a basis for foreign loans and the extension of credit.

Warring Nations Financially Strong.

Facing, as we do, the possibility of floating in this country, not only European war loans, but also loans of our own, it is comforting to realize that the financial strength of Great Britain and France has not been affected in the slightest degree by the tremendous strain to which it has been subjected in the last two years and a half. The wealth and resources of both countries are so enormous that there is no probability of loss through loans to their governments. With all our tremendous resources and our present store of gold, we may look upon the possibility of a bond issue to meet the expenses of war with much optimism.
